

Dallas Women’s Foundation Social Change Model

This model names five shifts that are essential to change, as described below.

Shift	Description
Definition	Reframing an issue or situation
Behavior	Changing individual, institutional or community conduct
Engagement	Involving more people, from awareness through action
Policy	Changing public or institutional policies and practices
Maintaining Gains	Ensuring that past “wins” for women and girls are protected