

Ripple Effect

Learn More

The Dallas Women's Foundation is at the center of a huge ripple effect. Our focus is on lifting the community. An investment in women – more than any other— is the fastest and surest way to strengthen the entire community. When you help a woman, you help her entire family. When you assist a family to break the cycle of poverty, you improve the entire community.

Women's Philanthropy

Founded in 1985 and operating as a community foundation, Dallas Women's Foundation is one of 145 global women's funds. DWF is one of the oldest, and the largest regional women's fund in the world in terms of investment assets.

Research at the Foundation seeks to inform and engage decision-makers in key issues affecting the status of women and girls in North Texas.

Focus areas include

- Economic Security
- Health & Safety
- Education

DWF researches, evaluates and awards grants to organizations and programs that can make the most significant impact on the needs of women and girls in our area. Grant awards address a range of problems and fall into the areas of:

- Education
- Prevention
- Family Violence
- Health
- Economics

DWF provides safe and informative opportunities for women and their families to discuss their giving, network with like-minded women and find the power within themselves to make gifts of personal significance.
